YESTERDAY'S OUTING HIGHLY ENJOYED

Dark Day And Cold Atmosphere No Deterrent On Spirits of the People, And the Attendance At Kennywood Is Large

WILL BE GIVEN NEXT YEAR

Date Announced Later, But At Same Place—Famed Kennywood—Lady Loses Purse; Can Be Recovered By Calling At Chamber of Commerce

Yesterday's picnic at Kennywood park was one of the most delicious of outings ever enjoyed by the people of Charleroi and this community. The attendance was large, entailing folk of not only this borough, but residents of Speers, and other up-river towns, North Charleroi, and even Monessen. The day was dark and gloomy, but weather conditions were no deterrent on the spirits of the crowd. The majority of the assemblage took their lunch baskets, and those not going by train were on the job in automobiles. The success of the affair was such that it will be given at the same place next year, but the time has not yet been decided upon. James T. Heffner announces that some lady lost her handbag, and that the same can be had by calling at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Municipal building.

The various amusements of the park were enjoyed, inclusive of the dancing pavilion, et cetera. Among the features were the sporting events, the results of the races being as follows:

Girls' ball throw: Lydia Belle Woodward, first; Annette Hennen, second. Men's ball throw: B. Chacko. 100-yard dash: Paul Wagner, first; B. Chacko, second; J. Nevick, third. 50-yard girls' race: Margaret Mahaley, first; second, Pauline Sangston; third, Thelma Doyle. Married ladies' race: Mrs. Moodlo, first; Margaret Spahr, second, Mrs. Wood, third. Business men's race: Dr. Edwin McKay, first; Thomas P. Tweed, second; Harry W. Scott, third.

In the baseball game between the business men and clerks, John B. Schaefer's club beat the clerks' team by a score of 11-5. Mr. Schaefer was captain of the business men's team and Charles Bateman for the clerks. The only thing that marred the day was two minor accidents that occurred on the Racer, when two local boys aged about 14, in their desire to speed up the car in which they were riding, were forcibly pumped against the iron bar that is used by passengers to grip as they are raced over the track, and were injured about the face. "Baby" Gallagher received a deep gash just above his eye, while George Humphries was cut on the lower lip and had two lower teeth knocked out.

115 CONFIRMED BY BISHOP H. C. BOYLE

At St. Jerome's Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock a large class of 103 boys and girls and 12 adults were confirmed into the faith of the Roman Catholic church by Right Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese.

The service was a very beautiful one, the girls appearing in white dresses and veils and the altar was prettily decorated with white flowers and ferns.

Bishop Boyle was assisted by ten visiting priests, in addition to the services of Rev. Father William D. Fries, pastor of St. Jerome's, and Rev. Father James McKeever, assistant pastor. After conferring the rites of the church Bishop Boyle gave a very interesting and instructive address to the confirmands. Rev.

Country's Head And Outstanding Figure, And New England's Leading And Favorite Son, Chosen To Lead Republican Hosts Amid Loud Acclaim And Tumultuous Cheers Today

Calvin H. Coolidge was nominated on the first ballot, at 12:20 o'clock today to lead the Republican forces in the fall Presidential election.

Municipal Auditorium, Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—Calvin Coolidge today was formally elected to lead the Republican party to victory or defeat at the polls this fall, as the climax of one of the most extraordinary conventions held by the party in years. The president was given an overwhelming vote of confidence for another term in the White House. This announcement

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—After the convention was called to order at 11:03 the band played the "Star Spangled Banner," and Bishop Schrambs of the Catholic diocese of Cleveland, was introduced to lead in prayer. After the prayer and the singing of "America," the roll of states was then called for National committeemen—one man and one woman from each. The new committeemen were then formally declared elected by the convention.

Preliminaries called the roll of the states of nomination of president. A five minute rule was set for nominating speeches. At the call of "Alabama," the chairman of the Alabama was followed by a great uproar of yelling and cheering.

The nomination of the president marked the emergence of a new leadership in the G. O. P., a leadership of New England. The so-called "senate and oligarchy" passes as directorate of the party organization with the rise of the new leadership.

The convention choice was acclaimed by a wild din as the delegates and visitors by shouting and whistling and applied themselves to all sorts of noise-making devices that had been distributed in the hall.

Ohio, June 12.—Coolidge and Burton were the two Republican ticket for a brief spell early today, but as the National convention swung into its concluding deliberation, the ticket began to look more like "Coolidge and?"

At one of those early-in-the-morning-in and out-of-the-way-room conferences which have become an institution in the history of presidential nominations Borah was selected at 1:30 this morning by Coolidge leaders to receive the vice presidential nomination. It was all carefully arranged. The plan had received the

MISS HUMPHREY'S SCORES ANOTHER BIG HIT AT PALACE

The Palace Theatre was packed to overflowing last night to witness Miss Humphrey's new dramatic "CONFUSION," which scored a big hit, the verdict of all in attendance was that the bill was one of the best that Miss Humphrey's has ever presented, and again proves that she is one of the foremost of producers and entertainers.

All musical numbers are of the catch, whistling kind, that cling to the memory, the display of gowns makes an appealing feature of the show, not only to the women, but to male auditors, who admire feminine attire. "CONFUSION" is class from start to finish, in action, wardrobe, and scenery, a real Metropolitan production in miniature Musical Comedy. 711

Chief of the County Detective Force, William B. Dinsmore, Reaches This Conclusion After Investigating Death

IS A CASE OF SUICIDE

Husband of the Woman Claims His Wife Is Addicted to Strong Drink, That They Quarreled—Woman Used Her Son's .22 Calibre Revolver

Mrs. Eva Macewka, 33 years old, wife of Antonio Macewka, committed suicide, in the opinion of Chief of County Detectives William B. Dinsmore. The deed was done on Tuesday at her home in Vestaburg.

According to the statement of Antonio Macewka, made in the district attorney's office yesterday, his wife was drunk very frequently. She had been drinking Tuesday morning. About 9 o'clock the husband was on the back porch, cleaning lettuce, when he heard a shot. Running into the kitchen he found his wife lying on the floor with blood oozing from a wound in her left eye. Beside her was her son's .22 calibre rifle.

The husband called for help, and John Teslovich, who lives in the same house came in. He told Macewka to go to Brownsville for a doctor. The doctor, however, was out of town, and Macewka was sent to an undertaker's by the physician's wife.

When the latter arrived at Vestaburg, Mrs. Macewka was dead. He took the body to Brownsville and the husband was placed under arrest, pending an investigation. Early yesterday he was lodged in the county jail, where he will be held pending the coroner's inquest, the date of which has not been set.

Mrs. Macewka leaves a son aged 15 and a daughter, aged 17, by a former marriage. She had been married to her present husband only three weeks, although they had lived together for the past three months, having secured a marriage license, which they believed made them husband and wife.

In his statement, Macewka said that he and his wife came from the same town in Austria. His wife's former husband, John Andreykovich, died five months ago. Since they have lived together Mrs. Macewka drank moonshine frequently and was very quarrelsome. Five weeks ago she came home drunk and they had a fight. They quarreled again on May 30 when Macewka slapped her face. The next morning while still drunk she cut herself with a knife. In making his investigation Mr. Dinsmore interviewed a number of witnesses and verified all the statements made by Macewka. This leads the authorities to the opinion that Mrs. Macewka's death is a case of suicide.

YOUNG MAN IS HELD FOR COURT

Hazen Neill, aged 18, of Monongahela, at a hearing before Alderman A. N. Jenkins charged on oath of August Meier with involuntary manslaughter. He was held for court and furnished bail in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance. Meier was represented by Attorney Carl E. Gibson, while Attorney C. L. V. Acheson of Washington was counsel for Neill.

The suit is the outcome of the death of William Meier, seven years old, son of August Meier. The child was injured, fatally, by a touring car driven by Neill, on May 22, in Monongahela, and died in the Memorial hospital in a few hours after the accident.

An inquest was held by Coroner William Greenlee, in which Neill was found not criminally responsible for the death of the child, but was in a "small way contributory to the death of the child by not attracting the attention of the approaching automobile." The Meier child darted from the pavement into the street and was struck by Neill's car. Only three witnesses were called at the hearing. They were Mr. and Mrs. August Meier, parents of the child, and Victor Gassieux, a painter, residing in New Eagle, and it was upon the latter's testimony that Neill was held.

Gassieux stated that he was working on the S. B. Richardson residence near the scene of the accident and saw the Ford pass the Seventh Street car switch. Gassieux stated that Neill was driving the Ford at a rate of speed, which he estimated at 35 miles an hour. He ascertained that he saw the machine strike the boy, the driver stop, pick up the child, and rush him to the office of a doctor. At the coroner's inquest, a number of persons testified and stated that it was very necessary that Neill proceed slowly past the switch owing to the fact that the street is rough, and it would be impossible to pass over the stretch at a fast rate of speed. It was testified at the inquest that Neill was not driving over 15 miles an hour. The defense offered no evidence.

Miss Leila Warfield, aged 21 years, a respectable and well esteemed colored girl of Donora, member of a wellknown and respectable colored family of the borough named, is in the Memorial hospital, Monongahela, with a bullet wound in her breast, inflicted, it is alleged, by Armen Johnston, a colored man, after Miss Warfield had refused to get into his machine for a ride, following a baseball game played between the Donora Athletics and the Durants, a semi-professional club of Canton, O., at Donora last night. It is alleged that Miss Warfield cannot recover from the wound.

Miss Warfield, with girl companions, were in attendance at the game, played at Americo park, and at its conclusion, started to walk to their homes. Johnston, it is said came along in an automobile, and asked Miss Warfield to get in and take a ride. According to report, on the young lady's refusal, Johnston fired a .38-calibre bullet into her breast, the ball coming out her back. She was conveyed to the Memorial hospital, where her condition is precarious. Johnston was captured by guards at the smallpox isolation camp, who turned him over to the Donora police. Early today he was taken to Washington, and lodged in jail.

PIRATES CONTINUE GOOD WORK BY BEATING THE N. Y. GIANTS IN THE FINAL GAME OF SERIES

Bill McKechnie's Buccaneers finished their Polo Grounds engagement yesterday by winning the rubber and thus giving them a margin of one game out of the seven played, including three at Forbes Field. The score was 4 to 2, the victory being decided in the sixth inning when all of Pittsburgh's runs were donated by the Giants.

Lee Meadows pitched a beautiful and unblemished game for four innings. Both New York tallies were the result of homers with the bases empty. Ross Young contributed the first one and Bill Terry's bat was responsible for the second one which was a fluke.

Hugh McQuinn was the first of three pitchers used against the Pirates. He lasted six rounds. Ray Bill Ryan twirled the next two and Ernest Maun broke into the pastime in the ninth. Between the three of them they limited the Buccos to six blows. Not once did the Pirates connect safely more than one time in any inning.

Construction of an oven that turns waste into a substance with heating properties similar to anthracite has resulted from experiments conducted by the bureau of mines co-operating with the University of North Dakota and the Canadian government. CHARLEROI PROVES QUITE EASY FOR WEST NEWTON

While Charleroi outthit West Newton 13 hits to 11, according to the official score, they were quite easy for West Newton Tuesday evening, mainly through the ineffectiveness of Beatty, and the poor support accorded him particularly, by Rooney, who was on second base. The score was 8-3.

Up to the fifth inning the game was interesting, and it was a pitcher's battle between Beatty and Westwick. In the first of the fifth, Rooney booted a couple, and after that Beatty seemed to lose confidence or control—something, for the visitors batted his slants to all corners of the field, allowing but one hit. When Wood Duck Nests Far from its natural element water, and often a mile or more from the nearest watercourse, the wood duck, unlike other members of its family, usually builds its nest. However, the difficulty of transporting the family from the nest to the feeding grounds is solved in a truly remarkable way. No sooner are the eggs hatched and the ducklings, about the size of bun hoppers, than each parent bird takes a little one in its bill, wriggles through the opening in the chestnut tree or white oak which harbors the nest, and, with a quick glance lest some enemy may lurk near, flies swiftly overland to creek or water hole. Here the tiny burdens are dropped gently into the water. Without previous swimming lessons, these newly hatched mates start over the surface of the water for the cover of marshgrass or lily pad, where they hide until the return of their parents with more of their brothers and sisters.

The Sackville Stogies Will Play Here On Saturday Afternoon

The Sackville Stogies, the only team that has lowered the colors of the crack West Newton club this season, will be the attraction at the Charleroi Baseball park Saturday afternoon. Time of game is 3:30 o'clock; slow time.

The fact that West Newton has beaten Homestead Grays, the Carnegie Elks, and all the best clubs in the independent circuit as relates to this section of Pennsylvania and winning quite easily over Charleroi Tuesday night, is evidence that for any team to defeat them must "go some," and the Stogies did turn the trick, and now it remains to be seen whether Beatty, who will probably pitch Saturday, will be in form to repeat his wonderful performance in the contest with Scottdale against the Stogies. If he can, Charleroi has a chance for victory; but if Beatty is in no better form than he was against the Grays and West Newton, the locals will have to play superbly to beat the Stogies. At any rate the fans are destined to see a crack club in the Stogies, and it is to be hoped that all the local players will be on their "toes" and do their best to defeat the visitors.

Use Aluminum for Roo's

Aluminum is now used for roofing purposes. The new product is in the form of shingles made entirely of aluminum. The great resistance of aluminum to the elements and its lightness make the metal excellent for such purposes. It is claimed to be proof against fire, rust, water, ice, hail and sweat as well as a protection against lightning.

SPELL OF THE LAST SPEAKER.

It appears that Bishop Brown opposed Darwinism before he knew much about it and then, when he read Darwin, he too readily swallowed the theory whole. At any rate Dr. Melish is quoted as saying that the heresy trial of Bishop Brown was a mistake, not because the Bishop's views invite approval but because his case calls for education rather than punishment. "Men like Bishop Brown," Dr. Melish is quoted, "make the last book they read their master." This statement is the more interesting as a reminder of the multitude who, as it is said, are convinced by "the last speaker." Without any very definite, well based or fixed views of their own, they are more influenced by the last speaker than by the first or the third merely because more of what he said is remembered.

But in the case of these impressionable persons the spell of the last speaker is but fleeting compared with the influence of the last book to make a sensation, for this can be read and thus retain its grip until another captures a relatively enduring interest in turn. It would be unsafe to predict how long will last the mighty vogue of Freud, for example, but it is quite likely that within a few years he will have been deserted, by the crowd at least, and a new star will hold the center of the philosophical firmament, bringing all the culture hunters with a rush to his shrine. For with the crowd that makes most of the noise understanding or intellectual digestion is not the real object. The chief and most desperate endeavor is to "keep up with the leading minds," or to give the impression that this ambition is realized, which may explain the ready flocking from an old to a new "prophet" or temporarily dominating mind.

A magazine writer complains that woman suffrage thus far is a failure. Well, there have been times when a thoroughly conscientious man would have hesitated to say that man suffrage was a complete success.

CALVIN COOLIDGE IS NOMINEE FOR PRES.

O. K. of William M. Butler, Frank B. Stearns, Secretary Weeks, in whose room the deciding conference was held, Charles B. Hiller, Senator Pepper and Reed of Pennsylvania. Secretary Mellon, Senator Wadsworth and others, the situation, it was said, had been thoroughly canvassed and Borah undoubtedly was the man needed. Furthermore, it was pointedly explained, no man would be thus suggested by such a notable gathering of party managers unless they knew he would accept.

Everyone was surprised and some of the delegates particularly those from the thirteen wheat states which had organized a bloc with the idea of selecting one of their middle western number to run with Coolidge, were angry.

These latter, after holding a meeting at which they voted former Senator Kenyon as their first choice and Senator Curtis as their second choice sent a committee down to advise the Weeks conference of their attitude. Before they could report to that conference, however, Weeks had "reported out" Borah as the choice of the Coolidge managers.

The wheat state bloc committee then plodded back to their conference, took three ballots on the question of supporting Borah, declined to approve the selection—and went to bed around 3 a. m., piping hot.

This morning they woke up all merry and bright again. It seemed that during the lapse of time between 1:30 a. m. and 3 a. m., Borah, hearing of the action taken at the Weeks conference, had rushed through both phone and telegraph messages to the leaders here reiterating previously tendered accusations of the second place position.

"Absolutely, positively, and unalterably, no," said Mr. Borah—thereby joining the refrain previously started by Frank C. Lowden, joined in by Secretary of Commerce Hoover no later than yesterday and now swelled to added volume by Borah.

In Society's Realm

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Daisy Provins, 502 Seventh street, Friday afternoon at 2:30. As this is the last meeting of the year, all ladies are requested to be present.

Mrs. John H. Fry entertained the members of the Dorcas class of the Methodist Episcopal church at her home in Fifth street Tuesday afternoon with eighteen members present. There was a short business meeting followed by a social hour that was much enjoyed by all present. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Price Fry.

At the last meeting of the season of the Crozier club held Tuesday evening in the Church school room of St. Mary's Episcopal church, plans were formulated for a social and entertainment to be held Friday, June 10. The purpose of this entertainment is to raise the amount paid towards the Japanese Reconstruction several weeks ago. The committee is preparing an unusual program of entertainment and a enjoyable evening is being anticipated. There will be a luncheon served. The members who desire to know what their share of the preparations will be should call Mrs. Walter T. Bromwich.

Announcement of a wedding of local interest has just been received here which occurred Sunday June 1 at the church of Our Lady of Pompeii of Brooklyn, New York, when Miss Mary Mormino, formerly of 701 Fallowfield avenue became the bride of Phillip Bargione of 498 Marcy avenue, Brooklyn. The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mormino, is wellknown in Charleroi and she wore a beautiful gown of Elizabeth crepe over white satin with insertion panels of old lace. Her train also of Elizabeth crepe with lace fell gracefully from her shoulders and she wore a cap effect of orange blossoms and seeded pearls. Miss Anna Mormino served as her sister's maid of honor, while Joseph Fame of New York was best man. There were also two train bearers, ring bearer, who was Leonard Mormino, Jr., of this place, six bridesmaids and six ushers. Rev. Father Silvestri was the officiating priest. Following the ceremony a reception followed in Lorraine Hall, here 500 guests gathered to wish the couple happiness.

Creature of Mystery
Found in Ant Colony

The most mysterious personage in a colony of African driver ants is a creature perhaps an inch and a half long and three-quarters of an inch high. It is not an ant. In fact, so far as science is concerned, says Prof. L. L. Garner in the Century magazine, it is as yet unclassified.

In comparison with the ants, sometimes Professor Garner, it is enormous. The creature—there is only one to a colony—looks for all the world like a tiny elephant in a circus parade as it lumbers along in the rear part of the line of march. Its body is about as thick as your finger, and its legs are proportionately heavy and help to increase the resemblance to an elephant. There is always a body-guard five or six deep round it as it marches.

The thing is hardly a prisoner, for it has never been found anywhere except in a column of driver ants. What its sex is is doubtful. Several of the driver ants were taken to Germany a few years ago and examined, but no important knowledge was gained. Personally I have never captured one of the creatures, but I strongly suspect that it is really the queen of the colony. For in all species of the hymenoptera, which includes ants, the queen appears to be an anomalous creature, many times larger than the other members of the colony and always different in form.

"Palatinate"

This term is a survival of feudal times. In the days when a man's house was actually his castle which he had to defend by force of arms, kings were not anxious to assume responsibility. Therefore they found it convenient to assign their adherents to districts, giving each the power to be master, collect taxes, and administer justice as he saw fit. The term "palatinate" was appropriately applied to such a holding as it comes from the same Latin root word as "palace" and "castle." Three hundred years ago palatinates were common. Many English counties have been palatinates and this form of governorship was common over here. For instance, Maryland was the palatinate of the Calvert family, Maine the palatinate of Ferdinando Gorges, etc. The Bavarian palatinate is the only territory of any importance which has retained the term.

The Power to Produce The Power to Save

These the farmer must develop who would forge ahead in his business.

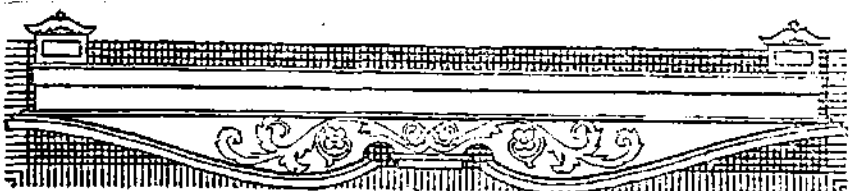

The power to produce depends upon the ability to judge good animals, plants and seeds, machines and materials, as well as good farm hands.

The power to save involves the ability to spend practically; to spend so that there will be a surplus to put in the bank.

Our Officers pride themselves on working closely with the farmers of this section.

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyocena, Wisconsin.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work. I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before the twins were born. I finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."

—Mrs. J. A. GERRITZ, Wyocena, Wis.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after child-birth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound both before and after child-birth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

He furnished bail in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at court. They also visited a store located at the corner of First street and Meldon avenue, where a number of punch boards was confiscated. General Tasker H. Bliss, of Washington, D. C., formerly chief of the staff of the U. S. Army, and who distinguished himself during the war through his diplomat services, was the orator at the Commencement Exercises. Dr. Thomas Stockham Baker, President of Carnegie Tech, awarded the documents of graduation.

The boys hiked the entire journey of 120 miles. The last communication sent home, the boys were at Bellwood, the end of their journey and were going to witness the races. After the DeMarco-Coulton fight, which they will also attend, the boys will start home. They will hike the entire journey unless picked up by automobile tourists.

BILIOUS?

then here is good advice

Stop taking harsh purgatives like Salts and Calomel at once, and take a dose of purely vegetable compound that contains just what your doctor would advise. These little tablets act directly on the kidneys and liver, but do not cause purging, only a gentle movement of the bowels being apparent. But oh, what a difference in your feelings by the morning; not only do you feel better, but you look better and think clearly.

Simply ask your druggist for a 35c box of Lebanon Herb Tablets and take tonight as directions advise. Every druggist will refund the purchase price if they fail to satisfy you, so try them tonight at our expense. Wagner's Drug Store can supply you.
